Finally, [let me switch code, just for a change,] for your information, in Addis Ababa, as of Meskerem 5, 2011, the day of usurpation by OLF of Abiy's government, and up until this very moment, Ethiopians who love unity and former symbols such as the ancient flag of the nation are under untold suffering by the usurpers of the change. Almost every state machinery, such as Defense, Police, Security, etc. is held by fanatic and extremist Oromos such as the hidden Rabbi, HE Jawar Mohammed, who is immune to declare a fabrication of " the death of 43 Oromos" to incite ethnic clashes between the Oromos and Amharas; he is the king of kings currently with no one to ask him responsible for what he nonchalantly does in the Ethiopian politics, and his stooges in the so called federal structure. This is what we call, in Amharic, ቅዠትን ባቋራጭ! These OLFites succeeded in achieving the 50 years age of their caprice within five months of maneuvering the mild Oromos in OPDO to willy-nilly kneel down to their whims. We shall see what will happen in the coming few months, believe me, ...
