DENOUNCE THE MURDER OF MOHAMED IBRAHIM IN ADDIS ABEBA

Mohamed Ibrahim, a devout Muslim and the father of seven children, was arrested in Addis Abeba by the security police 29 days ago and taken to the notorious Ma'ekelawi (central) prison. Once there he was accused of being a terrorist under the sweeping anti-terror law (already used to jail journalists), beaten brutally, tortured in the usual cruel way of the Addis Abeba regime.

Mohamed Ibrahim has now died from the torture and brutal beatings he received for the past month and he is already buried. His only crime was his participation in peaceful demonstrations of Muslims demanding their inalienable civil and human right.

SOCEPP send its condolences to his family and strongly condemns the repressive regime in Addis Abeba for having murdered yet another innocent Ethiopia, SOCEPP calls on those who are financing and supporting this inhumane regime to call for the cessation of the crude violation of human rights in Ethiopia.

Stop the repression and killings!

Release all political prisoners!!
